08:30  Morning refreshments and setting up of posters

09:50  Welcome and opening remarks
Dr Simon Cathcart, RSTMH President

10:00  Session 1
Manson Christmas Lecture
Addressing adolescent women’s vulnerability to HIV in sub-Saharan Africa: challenges and opportunities
Professor Charlotte Watts, Chief Scientific Advisor, DfID and founder of the Gender, Violence and Health Centre, London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine, UK

Session 2
Chair: TBC

11:00  Long-term effects of severe acute malnutrition on growth, body composition and function in Malawian children
Ms Natasha Lelijveld University College London, UK

11:15  Molecular detection of bat coronaviruses across two distinct geographical regions in southern Vietnam
Mr Philip Hefford London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine, UK

11:30  The social context of gender-based violence, alcohol use and HIV infection among women involved in high-risk sexual behaviour and their intimate partners in Kampala, Uganda
Ms Jasmine Schulkind Brighton and Sussex Medical School, UK

11:45  Quantifying prevalence and incidence of malaria-attributable febrile illness in Africa
Ms Ursula Dalrymple University of Oxford, UK

12:00  Using a candidacy approach to explore health beliefs, health-seeking behaviours and self-care practices of podoconiosis patients in North-West Ethiopia
Mr Harrison Banks Brighton and Sussex Medical School, UK

12:15  Awareness, attitudes and use of pain relief during childbirth in a private hospital in Uganda - the patient and healthcare professional perspective
Ms Aoife Kelly University of Bristol, UK

12:30  Lunch and parallel poster presentations

Session 3
Chair: Professor Alison Grant

14:00  A comparative and computational study of population structure and pathogen richness in bats
Mr Tim Lucas University College London, UK

14:15  Exploring the socio-ethical dilemmas surrounding the use of a global health archive
Mr Matthew Holmes Brighton and Sussex Medical School, UK
14:30 Traditional healers, faith healers and dementia in rural Tanzania
Mr Guy Hindley University of Newcastle, UK

14:45 Building prognostic models for adverse outcomes from a prospective cohort of hospitalised patients with acute leptospirosis infection in the Philippines
Dr Nathaniel Lee London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine, UK

15:00 Epidemiology of patients diagnosed with bacteriologically-confirmed pulmonary tuberculosis in Timor-Leste: early findings from a prospective cohort study
Dr Charlotte Hall Hull & East Yorkshire NHS Trust, UK

15:15 Episiotomy practice in Malaysia: a perspective from Hospital Sultan Ismail
Dr Thelma Tembo University of Newcastle, UK

15:30 Afternoon refreshments and parallel poster presentations

Session 4
Chair: Dr Simon Cathcart

16:00 Stigma and medication use in a prevalent cohort of young rural Tanzanians with epilepsy
Mr Jack Goodall University of Newcastle, UK

16:15 Leishmaniasis, conflict, and political terror: a spatio-temporal analysis of incidence
Ms Isha Berry London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine, UK

16:30 Obstetric mobile health: could SMS messages be used to support pregnant women and new mothers in central Uganda?
Mr Henry Claireaux University of Bristol, UK

16:45 What factors affect the level of funding received by the International Finance Facility for Immunisation? A qualitative study of International Finance Facility for Immunisation Company stakeholders
Dr Tim Crocker-Buque London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine, UK

17:00 Prize-giving and wine reception

18:00 Close
Parallel poster sessions

01  Clinical audit on the use of World Health Organisation recommended treatment regimens for severe malaria at Villa Maria Hospital, Uganda
    Ms Charlotte Knight University of Bristol, UK

02  Improving risk mapping for vector-borne, zoonotic diseases
    Ms Freya Shearer University of Oxford, UK

03  Nucleic acid tests for malaria: early results from an external quality assessment pre-pilot and pilot study
    Dr Sonia Bhatt Hospital for Tropical Diseases, UK

04  Changes in malaria morbidity and mortality in Kaduna State, Nigeria, 2009-2014
    Dr Binta Bako SuNMaP, Malaria Consortium, Nigeria

05  Diagnosis and treatment of Chagas disease from a health systems perspective: an analysis of coverage and supply side barriers to access in Colombia
    Dr Zulma Cucunubá Imperial College London, UK

06  Review of the Cardiotoxic Effects of Antimalarial Drugs
    Dr Ilsa Haeusler WorldWide Antimalarial Resistance Network, UK

07  Polydrug use and HIV risk among people who inject drugs
    Ms Isabel Tavitian-Exley Imperial College London, UK

08  A review of appropriate access and administration of antiretroviral medication to infants born to HIV positive mothers at the Villa Maria Hospital, Masaka, Uganda
    Ms Rachel Murphy University of Bristol, UK

09  What happens to tuberculosis contacts? Competing risks application to estimate risks of infection with single versus repeat exposures.
    Dr Melinda Munang University of Warwick, UK

10  The burden of cancer in Timor-Leste: a glimpse into the unknown
    Dr Alyssa Jacob Bairo Pite Clinic, Timor-Leste

11  Management of cord clamping in Masaka, Uganda: a qualitative study
    Ms Alice Cole University of Bristol, UK

12  Prevalence and risk factors for delirium among elderly inpatients in Northern Tanzania.
    Ms Jessica Banks University of Newcastle, UK

13  Current practice in physiological observation recording in acutely ill medical patients attending a resource-poor hospital in Uganda and the associated challenges in a developing world setting.
    Dr Nicola Crowther University of Bristol, UK

14  The role of public-private partnerships for the development of drugs and diagnostic tools for neglected tropical diseases.
    Ms Celine Aerts ISGlobal, Spain

15  The use of simulation in training healthcare professionals in identification and management of potential victims of human trafficking
    Ms Rosie Riley University of Bristol, UK